Rev. Dr. Patti Thompson-Frazier is a resident of Hillsborough, North Carolina. She is an Itinerant Elder and is the Pastor of Johnson Chapel AME Church located in Mebane, North Carolina.

Pastor Patti received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Chemistry from North Carolina Central University. She completed the Master of Divinity Program at Hood Theological Seminary and the Doctorate in Podiatric Medicine at Temple University School of Podiatric Medicine.

She has pastored for 8 years, 5 years at Elizabeth AME Church, Liberty and currently at Johnson Chapel AME Church. She has a heart for children and youth, believing that no one is too young to express worship through their gifts. Her ministry goals center around showing God's love to everyone.

Pastor Patti serves the community as Treasurer for the African American Caucus of Northern Orange County Democrats and the newly elected 2nd Vice Chair of the Cedar Grove Precinct. She is a former member of the Commission for Women and the Commission on Aging in Hillsborough.